EXPLORING THE RICHNESS AND POWER OF AMERICA'S JUDEO-CHRISTIAN HERITAGE

OVERVIEW

Born in America, we never knew tyranny. We were always free to govern ourselves and openly practice our faith in God without a heavy hand dictating the terms. Things are not the same today. Once we celebrated a common heritage, conceived in liberty and justice for all. Today we stand divided. Many fear for what is coming upon the earth—civil disorders, breakup of the family, plagues, natural disasters, and a loss of confidence in their government. We have exhausted all remedies to restore what is lost, except the most important one.

It was present when barons under feudal law petitioned King John to sign the Magna Carta in 1215; it was present in 1517 when Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to the door of the University of Wittenberg in Germany, which started the Reformation; and less than 100 years later, it was present when the Pilgrims immigrated to Holland to escape religious persecution, when they signed the Mayflower Compact in 1620, and it was present in 1776 when 13 colonies severed their ties with England and declared independence from the “divine right of kings”; it was present in 1863 when Abraham Lincoln emancipated the slaves. What was that crucial remedy cutting through the darkness in all these movements that is missing today? You'll find out in this Bible study.

Clearly, we have a great heritage to pass on to this generation. President Woodrow Wilson said, “A nation which does not remember what it was yesterday, does not know what it is today, nor what it is trying to do. We are trying to do a futile thing if we do not know where we came from or what we have been about.”

These are times that will try the souls of men. When the truth is told of what God did in, through, and for the people, it will turn many back to God. As we pull back the pages of history, they will see it was the Savior all along lighting their path in desperate times to pull them out of the fire and lead them back to the cross to reconcile with God.
